

Huda Sahaf

Toronto, Ontario

416-785-4996

huda.sahaf@mail.utoronto.ca

Professional Profile:

Emerging cyber security analyst. Critical thinker. Adaptable trouble-shooter. Passionate about data security and preserving the user's right to privacy.

Education:

Bachelor of Information

2024

Faculty of Information, University of Toronto

(expected)

Bachelor of Information (2022-2024)

Life Sciences, 2020-2022

Representative Courses: Words Become Data, Computational Reasoning, Intro to Object Oriented Programming, and Introduction to Computer Programming

Certifications:

CompTIA Security+ (In Progress)

Sept 2023

(expected)

TryHackMe – Learning Pathways

2022

Intro to Cybersecurity, Pre-Security Skills

Seeds of Leadership

2022-2025

- Program consists of 6 impact projects in order to develop leadership skills
- Participating and facilitating in coaching workshops on various professional skills and business models
- Critically assessing, and iterating technical solutions based on contextual evidence

Selected Projects:

Coding Sudoku Using Sorting Algorithms:

2020

Course Project (Introduction to Object-Oriented Programming)

- Experimented with breadth first and depth first sorting algorithms to code an interactive sudoku using Python
- Trouble-shooted and debugged the code in order to hold up to a series of tests

Analysis of Hidden Homelessness in Toronto:2022

Course Project (INF312 – Worlds Become Data)

- Using R to conduct an analysis of a dataset from Toronto's Shelter Information Management System
- Critically analyzing the data to understand the impact of data omission

Professional Experience:Management Consultant*2022

Nisa Homes, Mississauga

- Led a team to redevelop the volunteer management and retention system
- Conducted research interviews and analysis of data collected from nine regional managers, 20 volunteers, and 3 other organizations
- Evaluated and optimized recruitment, training, and onboarding processes

Volunteer Experience:Program Coordinator*2023

Deen Services, Mississauga

- Leading a team to develop a sustainable network for Muslim adults with disabilities so that they receive constant support from the community
- Ensuring implementation of the policies and practices of the program
- Planning and coordinating biweekly events in order to prevent isolation and increase accessibility services in the community

Additional Experience:Sales Associate*2021-2022

Fabricland, Hamilton

Assistant Math Instructor2017-2020

Kumon Learning Center, Mississauga

Skills and Qualifications:

Python	Critical Thinking	Urdu (Conversational)
Data Analytics (R)	Project Management	Sewing
Qualitative Research Methods	Problem Solving	